

Welcome to the Fall Vermont Open Studio Weekend, October 1 + 2.

In this booklet find information about 97 Studios & Exhibits. Use it in conjunction with our website. Look for "Visit Open Studio" page, to find more artwork and contact information.

Use the companion, Vermont Fall Open Studio google map to see updated participants.

During Open Studio Weekend, all sites are open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

How to Use This Guide:

1. As much as possible, sites are numbered in a flow that respects travel in a local area using main roads.
2. To help you plan your weekend, we have included tour "loops". These are suggestions about groups of studios that you can visit in an afternoon. Loops are shown with a dashed blue line around groups of studios on the map.
3. Map markers show approximate locations.
As you get closer to the site, look for yellow wayfinder signs.
4. GPS works fine in urban areas but not so well in rural ones.
Vermont does not have universal cell coverage.
When in doubt, use our directions.

VISIT 97 SITES, 130 ARTISTS ACROSS VERMONT
vermontcrafts.com

Open Studio Weekend is a celebration of the creation of craft and artwork and the work life of Vermont artists.

Thirty years ago, there was no internet, no smart phones, and no wireless networks. There was also no 911 network in Vermont yet and often roads in rural places did not have signs. There was no event map booklet to guide the way.

Now we have all those things to help you plan your tour through the villages and back roads of the state.

A new generation is embracing hand made, repurposed, utilitarian, local and limited production work, and these artists are joining Open Studio.

Introducing Tour Loops

A tour loop is an arbitrary grouping of studios that are loosely connected to each other via some of Vermont's main roads. They take some of the planning out of touring for Open Studio as they can be easily visited in one day or over the course of a weekend. We hope they are a useful tool that makes discovering Vermont's rich cultural and natural beauty a bit easier. Of course these loops are the ones we came up with but many other tours are possible and we encourage you to make your own.

What Are Information Centers for Open Studio Weekend?

For Open Studio Weekend, small galleries around the state serve as places to pick up a map and find more information about the local visual arts community. In many cases these galleries are officially designated Vermont State Craft Centers, however, all are worth getting to know and visiting at other times of the year.
